Ahmed's family went to a farm for a picnic.

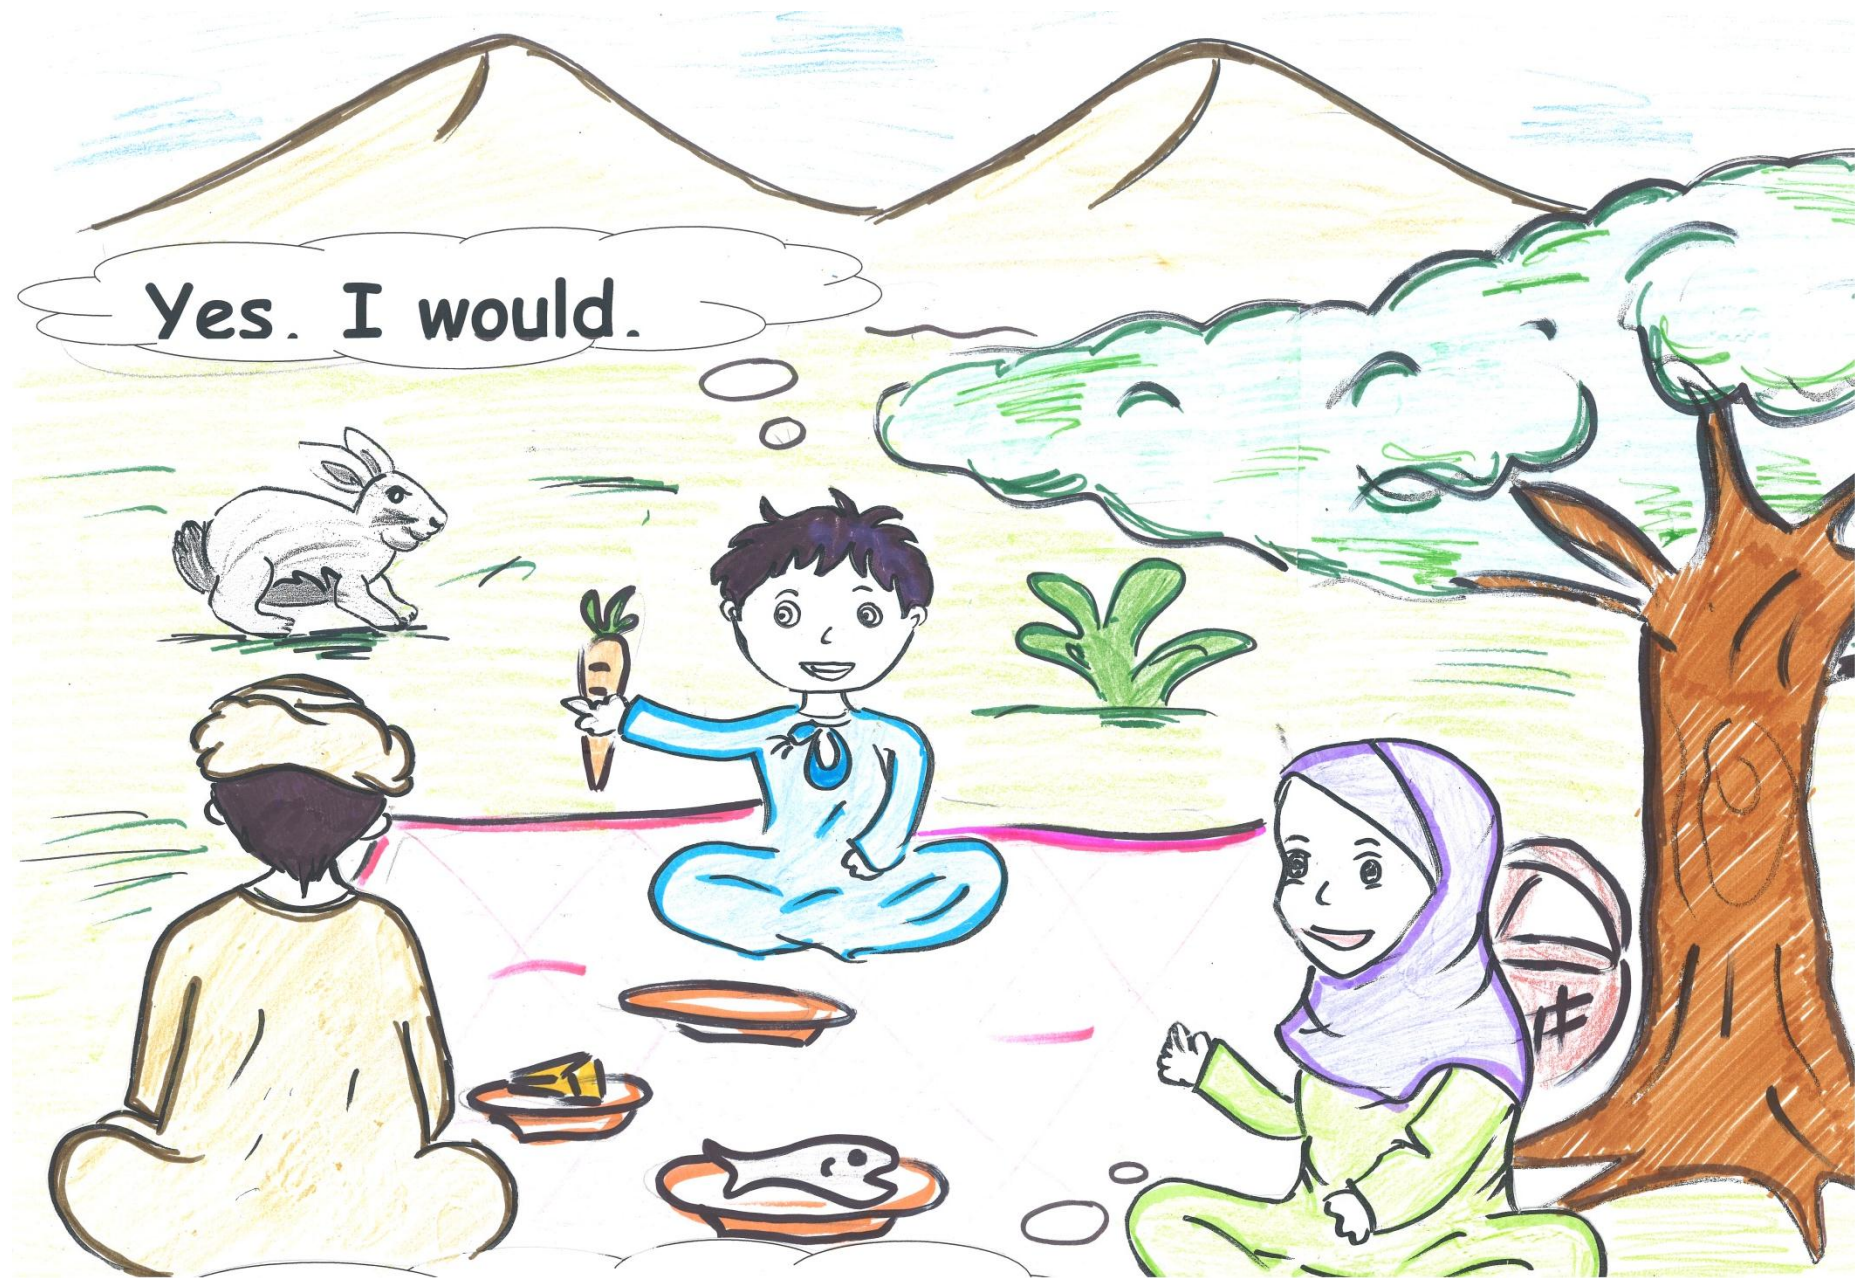

They sat under a big tree
and took out the food.

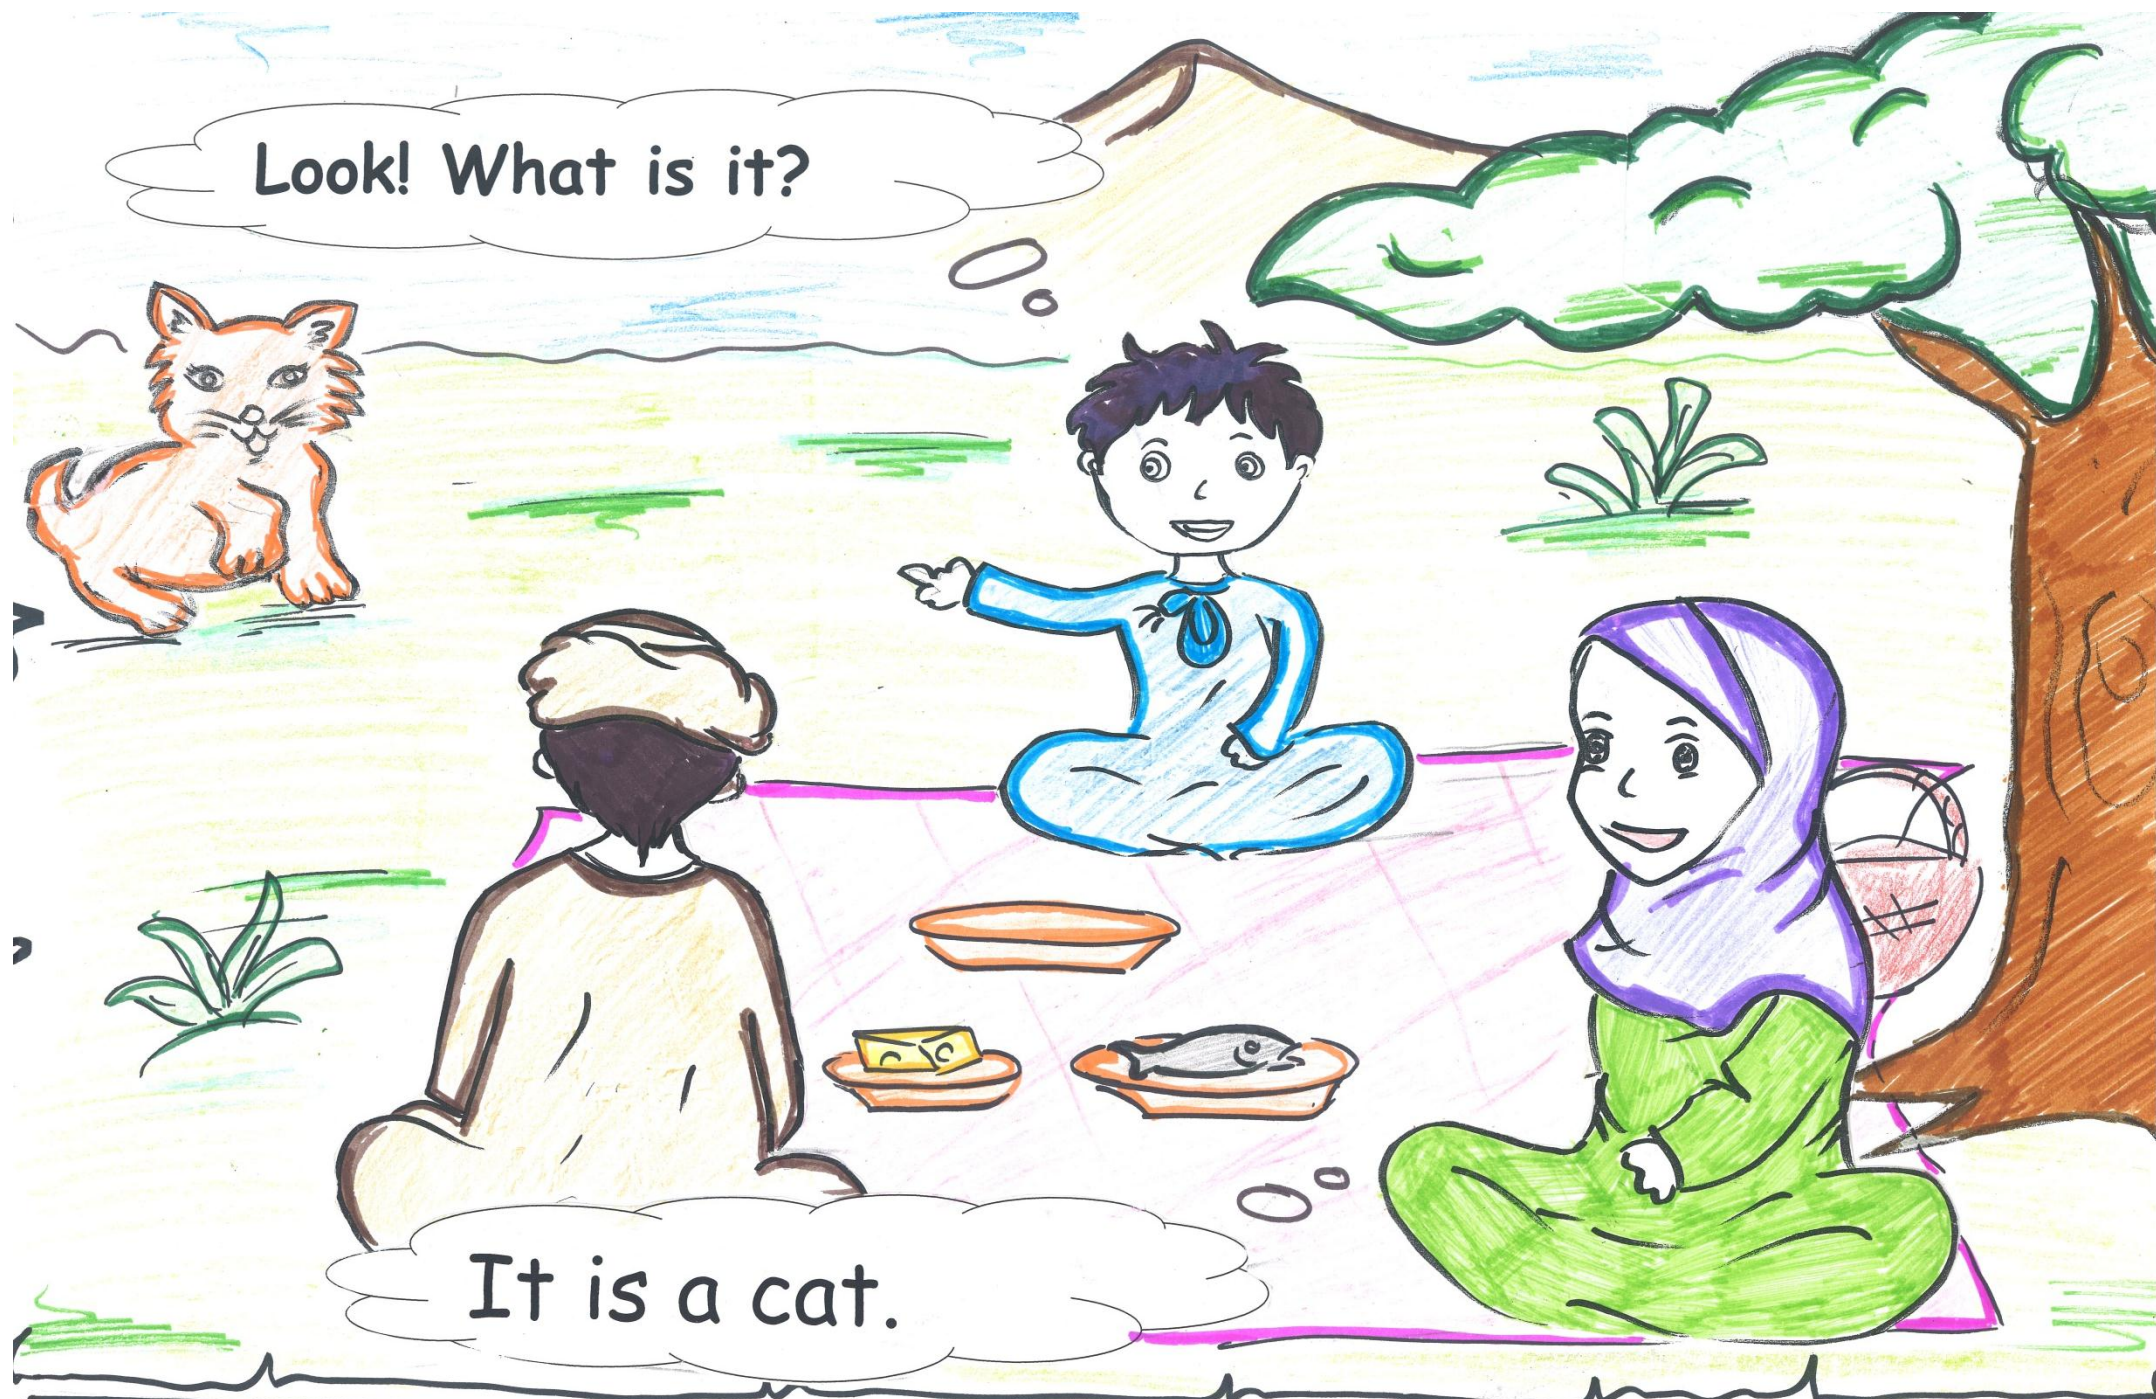

Suddenly, a rabbit hopped by.

'Would you like to share a carrot with it?' asked mum.

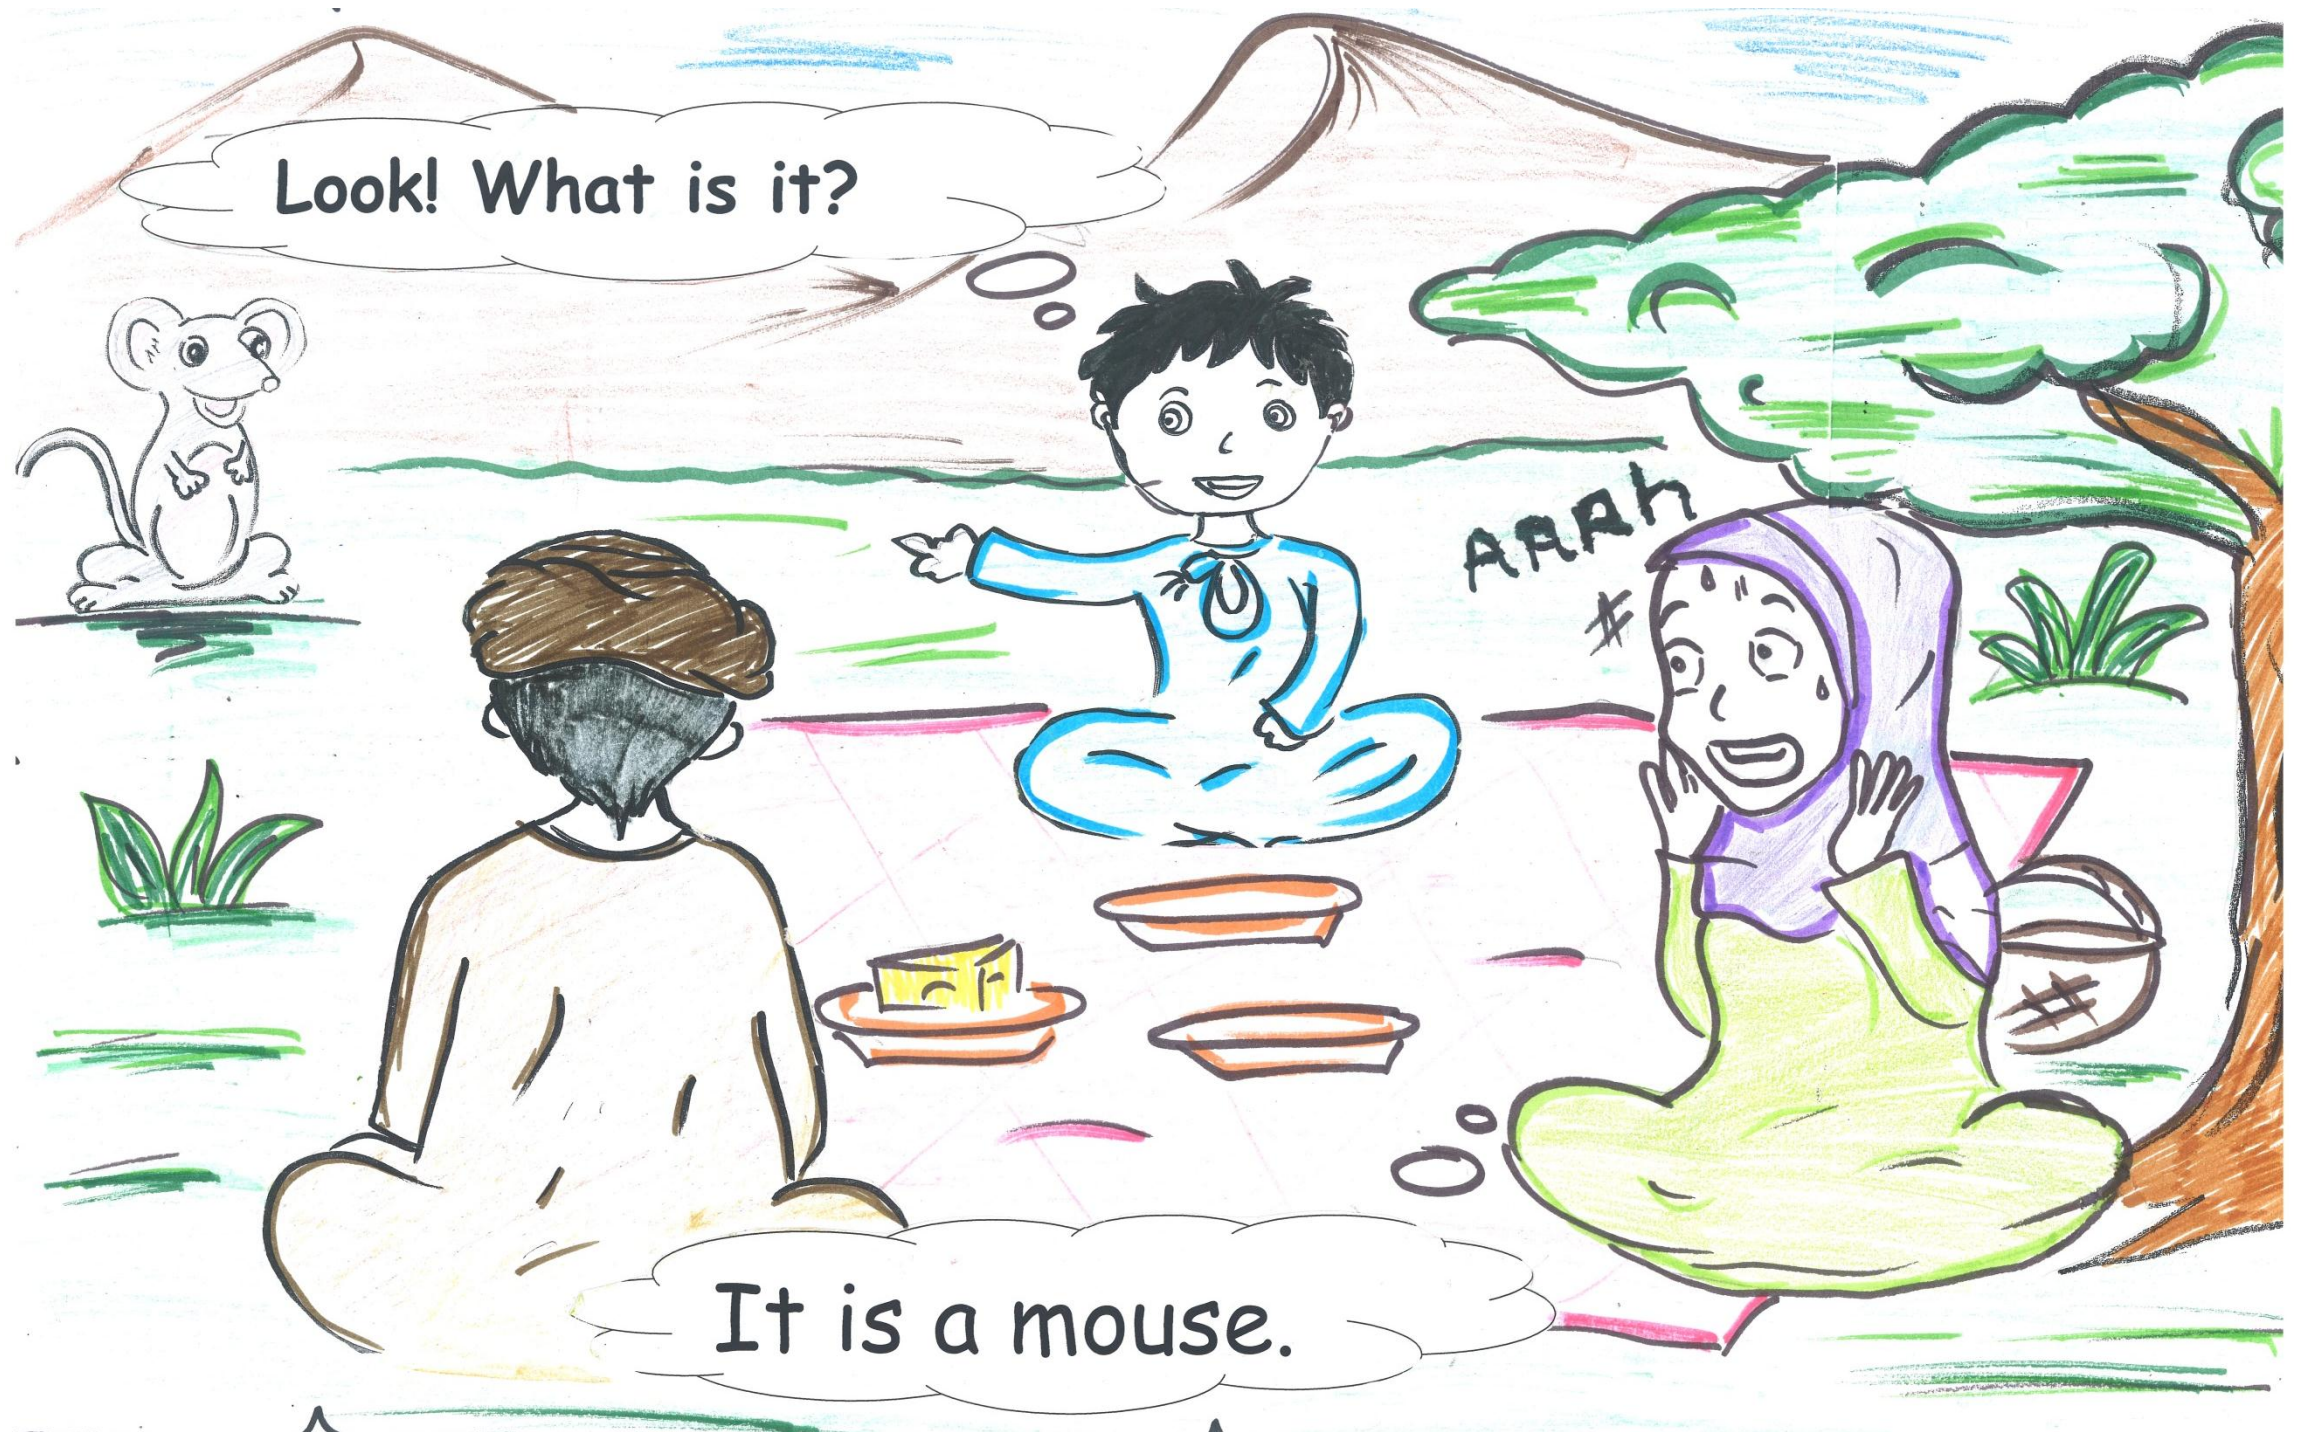

Then a cat ran past.

'Would you like to share your fish with it?' asked mum.

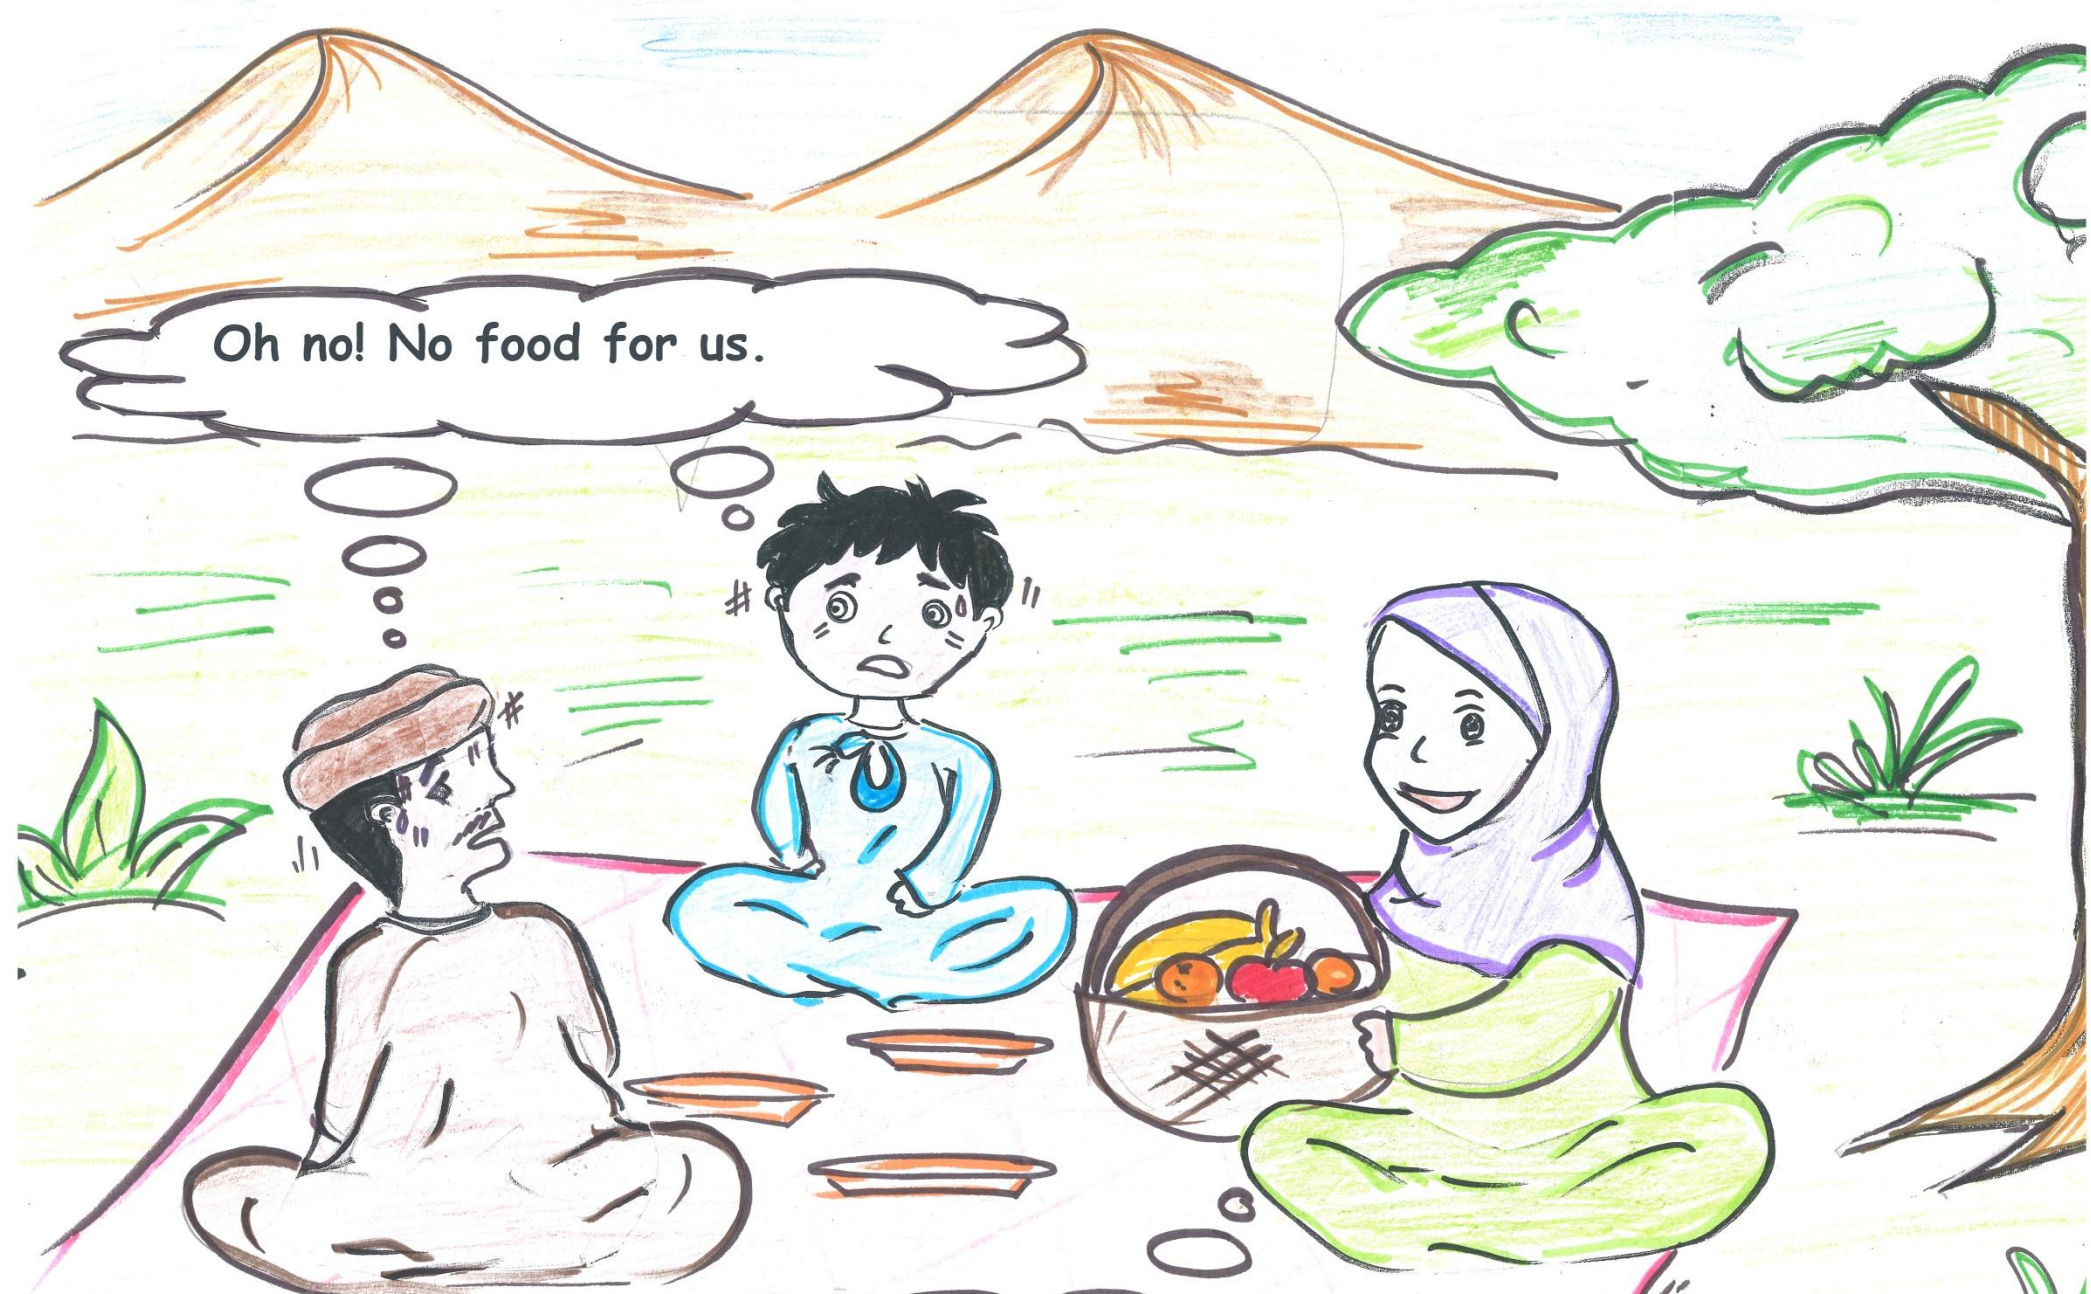

Then a mouse walked past.

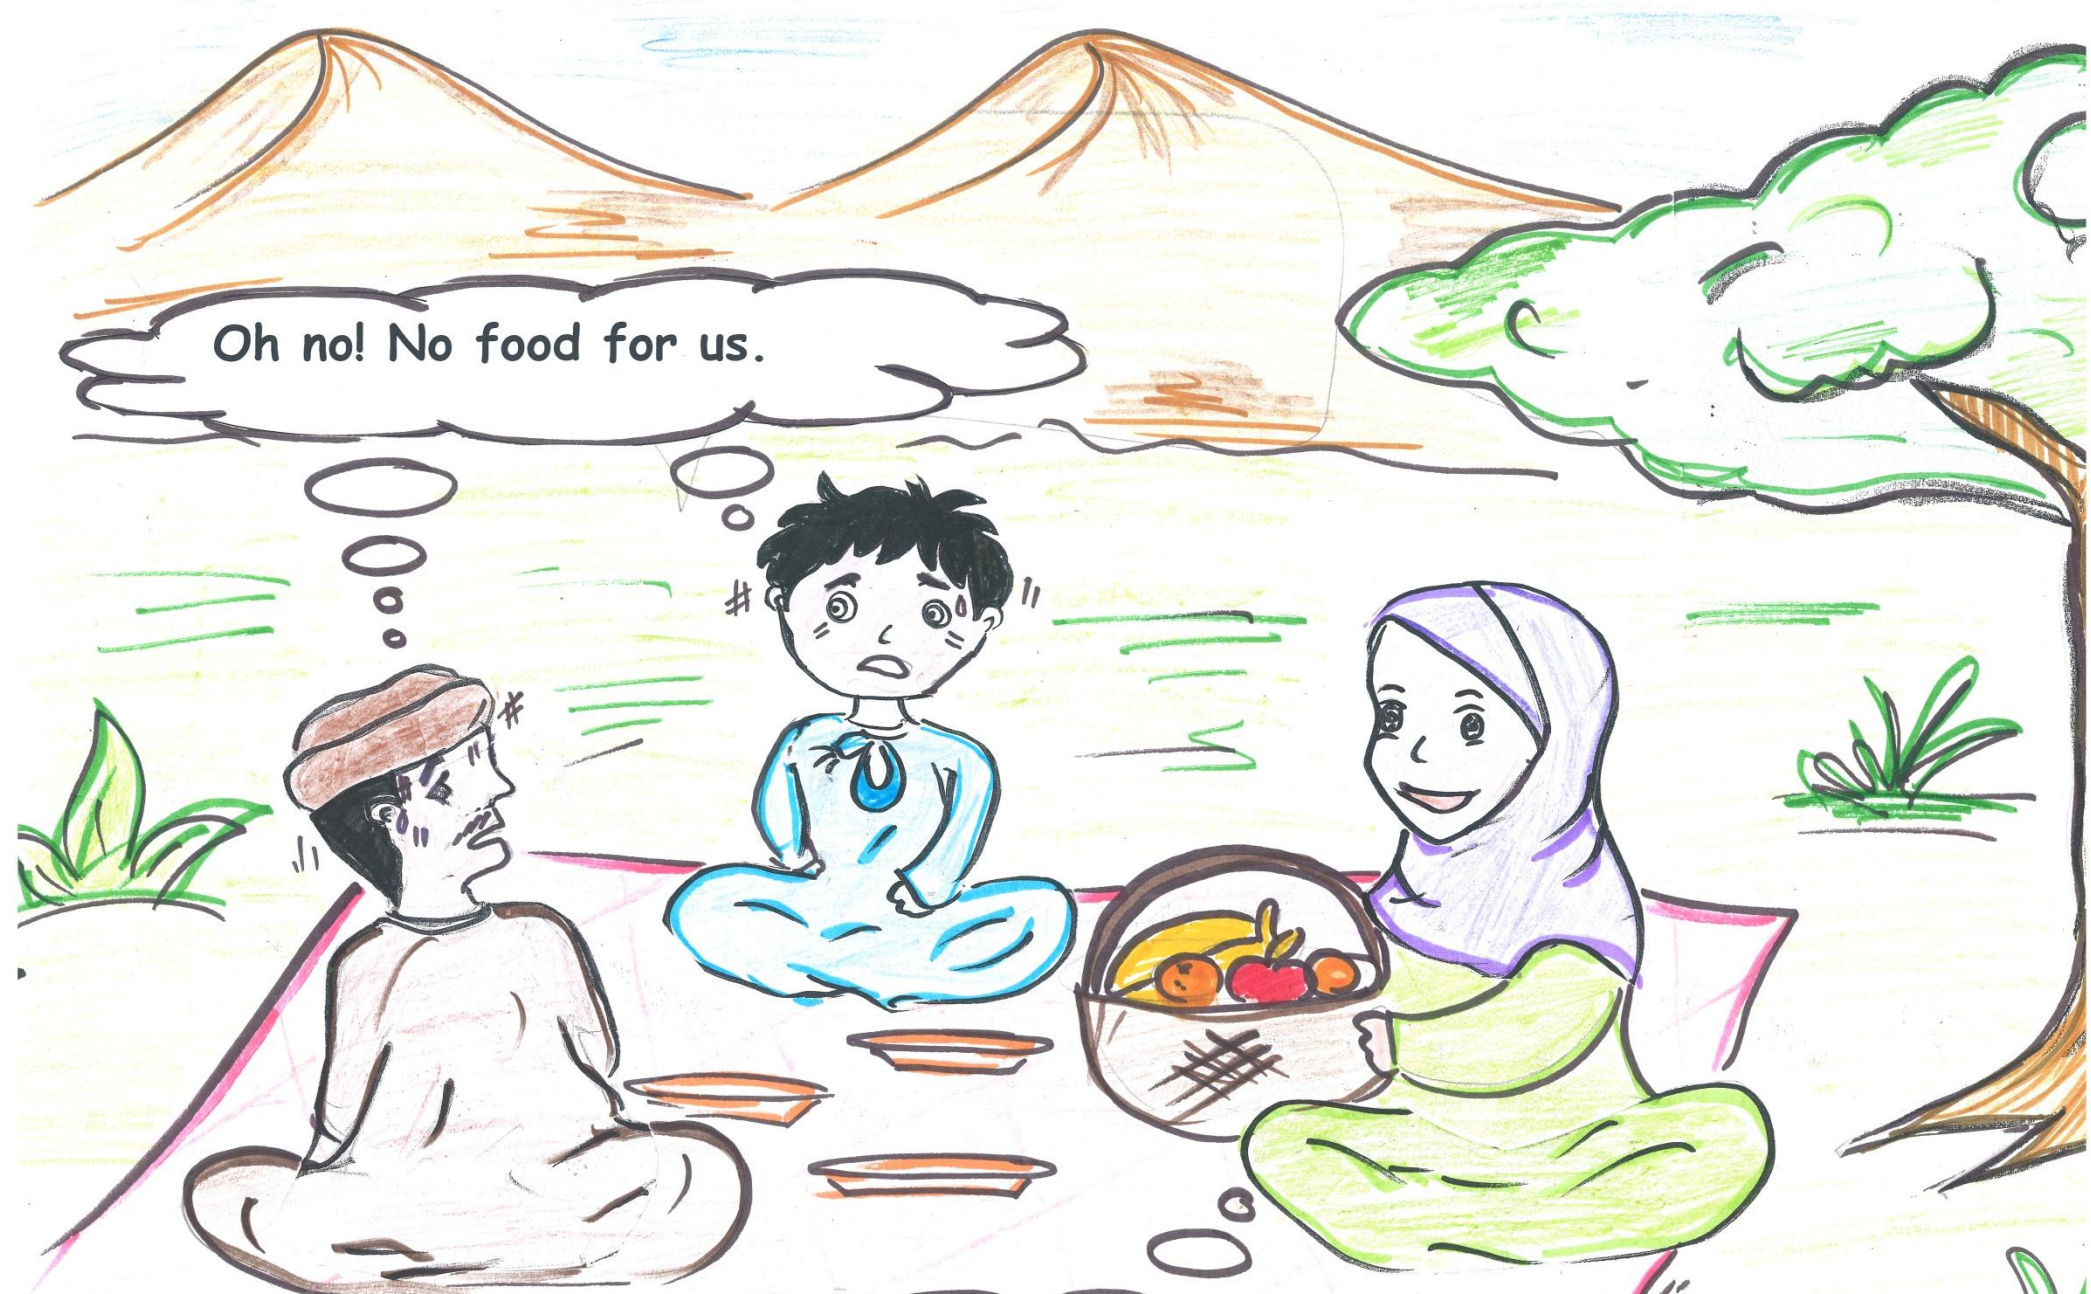

'Would you like to share your cheese with it?' asked mum.

'Oh no! There's no food for us', said dad.

'Don't worry', said mum, 'I kept some fruit in my basket.'

In the end, the family and the animals were happy.
